WITHDRAWAL OF EGYPTIANS FROM SUDAN IS ORDERED

Action Follows Upon Refusal Of British Demands

TROOPS PARADED

Alexandria Garrison Turned Out After Demonstration

(Reuter's Service)

Cairo, Nov 24.—The indemnity has been paid, accompanied by a Note protesting against the demands for the withdrawal of Egyptian troops from the Sudan and for the withdrawal of the opposition to the wishes of the British Government in regard to the protection of foreign interests in Egypt, which are characterised as unjustifiable.

Later—Viscount Allenby has informed Zaghlul Pasha that as a first measure to be taken owing to the non-acceptance of all the British demands the British forces have been instructed to occupy the Alexandria Customs.

Later.—The Cabinet has resigned.

The King has accepted the resignation and summoned Ziwar Pasha, the President of the Senate, who has consented to form a Cabinet.

(Reuter's Service)

Cairo, Nov. 22.—Accompanied by the Counsellor of Embassy and escorted by a regiment of cavalry, Field-Marshal Viscount Allenby, the High Commissioner for Egypt, today visited Zaghlul Pasha, the Egyptian Premier, and presented a Note. Viscount Allenby remained five minutes and received a Royal Cavalry salute on his arrival and departure.

The note demands a proper apology, an indemnity of £500,000, prohibition of political demonstrations and withdrawal of Egyptian officers and units from the Sudan, the Sudanese troops to come under the control of the Sudan Government proper. The note reserves the right of revision of the conditions governing the retirement of British officials and insists on retention of the British judicial and financial advisers. It re-affirms the absolute right of the British Government to protect foreign interests in Egypt and calls on the Egyptian Government to cease all opposition in this connection and demands a reply within 24 hours. The note further demands most energetic prosecution of the inquiry into the crime and condign punishment without respect of persons and also notifies the Egyptian Government of an increase of the Gezira cotton irrigation scheme from 300,000 feddans to an unlimited figure.

Zaghlul Pasha is seeing the King immediately. It is expected that the Premier will resign.

The schools are on strike apparently as a protest against the British comment on the murder.

Hangchow Hotel Guests Inquisition Victims In Feverish Hunt For Spies

Five And Six Searches Of Hostelries Are Made Daily In Order To Question Newcomers As To Their Business In The City

(China Press Correspondence)

Hangchow, Nov. 21.—The indignities which guests in the hotels in Hangchow are being subjected to at the present time is becoming intolerable, though there has been some improvement in their treatment recently. This time it is not the profiteering landlords, nor waiters insistent on tips, it is the new militarised government which has recently come to the city. For a considerable time, five, and even six, examinations of the hotels are made each day, and every guest present in his room is catechised and questioned as to his business in the city.

Not only were these five and six examinations made daily, but each examination was conducted by a different organisation, mostly belonging to some phase of the military government. Woe unto the guest who is not able to give satisfactory reasons for his presence in the city.

Recently one hapless guest gave the innocent rejoinder that he was here for a vacation on West Lake. This reason which in times past has been sufficient to bring pilgrims from the remote ends of the country did not suffice at all this time, and the guest was given a calling down that brought the rejoinder that he had really come to buy a few things in the shops. This was accepted but did not save the guest a cuff or two from the detective, because he thought a vacation insufficient reason for coming to this beauty spot of the Republic.

Another incident was the seizing of four guests in one hotel, because they could not give reasons satisfactory, to the detectives at least, for their presence in the city. They were marched off to the military headquarters. On their way to the station one of the guards in charge bumped into a countryman who was absorbed in studying the bill-boards of the West Lake Theater. Immediately the charge of being a spy was preferred against the student of the bill boards and away he went to the police station along with the hotel guests.

The number of daily examinations of the hotels according to report has now been reduced to two. One examination is conducted by the military and the other by the police authorities. This naturally has not resulted in an increase in the number of guests for the hotels. Everybody is longing for the "good old days" of Lu Hung-hsiang and peace, and is living in apprehension and expectation of a further tightening the grip as a result of the Yangtse Combination.

Additional evidence of the unsettled state of affairs in Hangchow is the failure of many families to return from their hurried flight from the city before the war scare. Business is going on as usual and the schools of the city have opened, with almost normal enrollment. The factories are also resuming peace time schedules but still many families are not returning to the city. If they have wealth they fear conscription and if they have children and wealth they fear the kidnapping of the children and by this means a forced levy on their wealth. Since there are schools in Shanghai many families are leaving their children there to avoid danger.

AGED WOMAN IS NEAR DEATH AS RESULT OF FIRE

Clothing Catches Fire When Cooking Stove In Home Overturns

Five outbreaks of fire occurred during the week-end but, with the exception of one that broke out shortly before 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon, none were of a serious nature.

At 12.56 p.m. yesterday Sinza Watchtower sighted smoke in the direction of Carter and Avenue Roads. Sinza Division responded and found that the outbreak was at No. R831, a dwelling house in an alleyway off Carter Road. A cooking stove had overturned and the clothing of a woman, 79 years of age, who was apparently using the stove at the time, was set alight. She was found suffering from severe burns on the chest, neck and arms. First-aid was

Licensing Of Physicians Is Issue In U. S. Court

In the United States Consular Court yesterday afternoon, before Commissioner N. E. Lurton, Mow Chu Lan, alias David Moore, alias C. L. Moore, was charged on the complaint of the Shanghai Municipal Police with practising medicine without having obtained a license therefore, according to law.

Mr. Leonard G. Husar, U. S. district attorney, prosecuted and Mr. C. S. Franklin defended.

Mr. Franklin demurred to the charge on the ground that it did not disclose any offence against the law, nor the law which it was alleged was contravened.

Mr. Husar replied that under the Alaskan Code doctors were required to be licensed before they could practise, and that code was applicable in this jurisdiction, whereupon Mr. Franklin retorted that if that were so every American doctor in Shanghai had contravened the law, and if indeed the law was as stated it had been ignored by competent authorities since 1906.

Mr. Lurton: Do you mean to say that any man can come within this jurisdiction and practise

GANDHI MAKES RECANTATION IN ADDRESS AT MEETING

Change Of Mind Is Admitted By Leader

LOSS OF POWER

No Longer Able To Ask Acceptance Of Views

(Reuter's Service)

Bombay, Nov. 23.—At a meeting of the Committee of the All India Congress, Mr. Ghandi, in moving approval of the compromise suggested at the Swarajist Conference at Calcutta largely suspending the program of non-cooperation, made a surprising recantation of his views, especially with regard to entry into the legislative councils, which he has hitherto resolutely opposed and which is the main barrier between orthodox politicians and Swarajists.

Mr. Ghandi sadly admitted that he had lost the power to command universal acceptance of his views. He exclaimed: "I am not a lunatic. I am a reasonable man. I am losing ground gradually and I would not hesitate to bend before Swarajists and Liberals. If necessary I shall bend before Englishmen if they will only show a change of heart."

The committe approved of the compromise by an overwhelming majority.

ARMED ROBBERS KEEP ACTIVE IN WEEK-END RAIDS

Alleged Theft Of $1,457 In Silver Sycee Reported By Bank Coolie

Three more armed robberies were reported to the police over the week-end.

At 9 o'clock Sunday night, two men, both of whom were armed with pistols, walked into a shoe shop at 155-6 Canton Road. There were eleven persons in the shop at the time, but they made no attempt at resistance. After stealing $27 the robbers escaped.

An hour later, two men, one of whom produced a pistol, entered a clothier's shop at 620-1 Fokien Road. They stole two long gowns valued at $238 and escaped. No outcry was raised by the occupants of the shop.

The alleged robber of silver sycee valued at $1,457.20 was reported to police of the Central Station by Sz Yih-foong, a coolie employed at the Yoong Yoong Native Bank, 30 Ningpo Road. According to the coolie, he left the bank at 6 o'cloock Saturday evening, carrying the silver sycee in a basket for delivery to four banks on Tientsin Road.

As he was walking down Tientsin Road 100 yards west of Honan Road, he asserts, four men came at him from behind. One confronted him with a pistol and ordered him to make no outcry and to put the basket containing the sycee down. Then one man seized the basket and ran east, while two others ran west along Tientsin Road. The men with the pistol remained with the coolie and ordered him to proceed west along Tientsin Road. When the coolie came to the Tqong Yue Bank at 497 Tientsin Road he entered and telephoned his employers reporting the robbery.

Police are at a loss to account for the coolie's actions inasmuch as the alleged holdup is supposed to have occurred between two armed police posts and there were also a number of armed watchmen in the vicinity, some of whom the coolie must have passed in his journey down Tientsin Road after the holdup. Nevertheless, there was no outcry, nor were the police notified at all until after the coolie had returned to his employer's premises.

Thanksgiving Day

(BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA)

A PROCLAMATION

We approach that season of the year when it has been the custom for the American people to give thanks for the good fortune which the bounty of Providence through the generosity of nature has visited upon them. It is altogether a good custom. It has the sanction of antiquity and the approbation of our religious convictions. In acknowledging the recepit of Divine favor, in contemplating the blessings which have been bestowed upon us, we shall reveal the spiritual strength of the nation.

The year has been marked by a continuation of peace, whereby our country has entered into a relationship of better understanding with all the other nations of the earth. Ways have been revealed to us by which we could perform very great service through the giving of friendly counsel, through the extension of financial assistance, and through the exercise of a spirit of neighborly kindliness of less-favored peoples. We should give thanks for the power which has been given into our keeping with which we have been able to render these services to the rest of mankind.

At home, we have continually had an improving state of the public health, the production of our industries has been large, and our harvests have been bountiful. We have been remarkably free from disorder and remarkably successful in all those pursuits which flourish during a state of domestic peace. An abundant prosperity has overspread the land. We shall do well to accept all these favors and bounties with a becoming humility and dedicate them to the service of the righteous cause of the Giver of all Good and Perfect Gifts. As the Nation has prospered, let all the people show that they are worthy to prosper by rededicating America to the service of God and man.

Therefore, I, Calvin Coolidge, President of the United States of America, hereby proclaim and fix Thursday, the twenty-seventh day of November, as a day for national thanksgiving. I recommend that the people gather in their places of worship and at the family altars and offer up their thanks for the goodness which has been shown to them in such a multitude of ways. Especially I urge them to supplicate the Throne of Grace that they may gather strength from their tribulations; that they may gain humility from their victories; that they may bear without complaining the burdens that shall be placed before them; and that they may be increasingly worthy in all ways of the blessings that shall come to them.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the great seal of the United States.

Done at the city of Washington, this fifth day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty-four, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and forty-ninth.

CALVIN COOLIDGE.

By the President,
CHARLES E. HUGHES,
Secretary of State.

RECOGNITION IS NOT ISSUE NOW, TUAN AIDE SAYS

Secretary To Anfu Chief Sees No Need For Fresh Formalities

(Eastern News Agency)

Peking, Nov. 23.—With reference to the question of recognition by the Powers of the new Peking Government, Mr. Hsu Shih-ying, who arrived here yesterday from Tientsin in company with Marshal Tuan Chi-jui and who has since been appointed Chief Secretary to the Dictator's Office is said to have stated to Chinese press representatives that the new Peking government was not of such a nature that would give rise to any diplomatic issue for the reason that the establishment of the present government meant nothing but the transition of political power, not in the least affecting the national constitution of the Republic of China.

Mr. Hsu Shih-ying went on to state that there was no need whatsoever for the new government to go through fresh formalities for obtaining the powers' recognition.

ACTION AGAINST TROTSKY URGED BY POLITICIANS

Removal Of Soviet Official Demanded Because Of Unorthodoxy

(Reuter's Service)

Riga, Nov. 23.—Political circles in Moscow are excited over the publication of numerous resolutions demanding action against M. Trotsky for alleged unorthodoxy.

M. Trotsky is still president of the Military Revolutionary Council and Commissar for Military and Naval Affairs but apparently his colleagues desire to deprive him of power. A recent conference of political officials of the Red Army and Fleet passed a resolution supporting MM. Zinovieff, Kameneff and Stalin against M. Trotsky.

It is rumored that the Military Revolutionary Council will be convoked to appoint M. Trotsky's successor.

CHANG TSO-LIN GOES TO PEKING AS MARSHAL TUAN TAKES OVER GOVERNMENT

Fengtien Leader And Numerous Staff Journey To Capital Guarded By Picked Troops And Airplanes; Feng Yu-hsiang Intends To Resign And Tour Europe And America, Says Semi-Official Report

(Reuter Pacific Service)

Peking, November 24.—Marshal Chang Tso-lin arrived here this afternoon accompanied by a numerous staff. No one was allowed on the railway platform but a large number of officials greeted him near the exit. The railway premises and streets were strongly guarded and bands played as Marshal Chang drove off in an armored car on which on a machine-gun was mounted. Marshal Chang has taken up residence in the old quarters of the Shunchengkuangfu in the West City.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Nov. 23.—The official organ Ching Pao says that Marshal Tuan will assume his office tomorrow.

Marshal Tuan Chi-jui will shortly issue two proclamations, firstly, announcing a new system of provisional government, providing the establishment necessary for official organisations, and defining the latter's authority and duties; secondly, announcing that all the laws, treaties, agreements, national and international, will be recognised, except those found to be incompatible with the Chinese Republic.

Marshal Tuan issued a circular telegram on November 21 of the usual strain, enumerating the evils of former administrations, expressing his intention to institute all-round reforms and adding that a reorganisation conference will be held at Peking within a month, which will be attended by delegates from the provinces and districts. This conference will discuss the situation, and decide the necessary measures to be taken, while a national conference to be held within the course of the next six months will deal with fundamental questions. When the latter's work is complete, he will retire from public life.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Nov. 23.—General Feng Yu-hsiang arrived yesterday evening. Marshal Chang Tso-lin has not yet arrived from Tientsin.

It is semi-officially stated that General Feng intends to resign and hand over his troops to the Ministry of War and after that make a tour of Europe and America.

The report that General Feng Yu-hsiang intends to get out is generally received with a spirit of thankfulness and looked upon as a long step towards settling the complicated situation.

General Feng's press says that having fulfilled his mission to terminate the war, he will go abroad with the object of improving his knowledge.

The General's opponents say that he is one of the trickiest Chinese leaders, who is making the most of a difficult situation, intending to test public opinion and stir up his followers, while not really expecting the acceptance of his resignation.

Impartials, however, think that General Feng has been outgeneralled at Tientsin, seeing the complete failure of his scheme to retain command of his "National Army." He therefore declines to sink into the background and has resorted to a plan which he thinks will preserve his dignity. They say further that Marshal Tuan arrives in Peking with a rare chance to do something if General Feng fufils his promise to retire, for various elements previously hostile to the pro-Japanese party will be ready to support Marshal Tuan owing to the Bolshevik menace which General Feng and his party began to establish in Peking.

DRIVER SOUGHT AS ONE VICTIM OF CRASH DIES

Foreign Child, Two Chinese Injured In Motor Car Accident

Police of the Bubbling Well Station are [illegible] a search for the driver of a motor car which figured in a triple accident at Bubbling Well Road and Yu Yuen Road at 5:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, bringing death to a Chinese boy of 9, and serious injury to a six-year-old foreign child and one of the four Chinese occupants of the car.

The foreign child injured is little Arthur Barrett, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Barrett, 48 Scott Road. Attending physicians at Shanghai General Hospital, to which he was taken following the accident, reported that his nose and thigh are fractured. His condition is serious, but unless complications set in, he will recover.

The motor car which ran down the foreign and Chinese youngsters bore License No. 3673 and was owned by a Chinese residing at 142 Yu Yuen Road. The owner, when questioned by the police, asserted that he was not in his car at the time of the accident and he was unable to say who was driving it. All four occupants of the car escaped in the confusion following the accident. One of them was later discovered by the police at Paulun Hospital, where he is suffering from a fractured skull. Another Chinese, who had been in the car and who had sustained minor injuries, had gone to the hospital but left before the arrival of the police.

Witnesses of the accident reported that the motor car was turning from Bubbling Well Road into Yu Yuen Road when it struck a pedicab. The driver of the car then swerved to the south side of Yu Yuen Road, where the Barrett child, accompanied by an amah, was crossing the street. The motor car struck the boy and hurled him to the pavement, one wheel passing over his thigh. Then the driver of the car, thoroughly alarmed, apparently lost all control of the wheel and the car struck the Chinese boy, pinning him to a telephone pole, where it stopped with a crash.

In the excitement which followed the series of accidents, all four occupants of the motor car ran away, making no attempt to care for the two wounded children.

The Chinese boy, Koo Ah-be, the son of a hawker, was taken to the Paulun Hospital by the police. He had suffered a fracture of the thigh and one leg was horribly crushed from having been pinned up against the telephone pole. He succumbed to his injuries at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. An inquest will be held today.

The occupant of the car now at the Paulun Hospital is suffering from a fractured skull. His condition is so serious that police have so far been unable to interrogate him in order to ascertain who was driving the car at the time of the accident.

Tuan Chi-jui assumed office at ten this morning.

(Eastern News Agency)

Tientsin, Nov. 24.—Marshal Chang Tso-lin, guarded by 600 picked soldiers under the command of General Li Ching-lin, left here for Peking this morning at 7 o'clock. Ten aeroplanes also accompanied the Manchurian war-lord, flying over his train.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Hankow, November 24.—Reuter's correspondent is semi-cially informed that yesterday's secret telegram offering support to Marshal Tuan Chi-jui was despatched to Peking by Marshal Wu Pei-fu, General Hsiao Yao-nan, Chi Hsieh-yuan and Sun Chuan-fang and other Yangtsze Tuchuns. The telegram also expressed desire for the removal of General Feng Yu-hsiang.

Doctor's License Is Issue In Court

medicine without a license to do so?

Mr. Franklin:—Any man can hang out his shingle and practise medicine, but if he is to practise in the General Hospital he is required to be registered at his consulate as a practitioner of medicine.

The Commissioner said the question would arise whether the defendant had been licensed to practice medicine anywhere by a competent tribunal or court of enquiry. In the event of neither it would be a dangerous thing to overlook.

Mr. Franklin explained that the defendant had been born in Honolulu and had come to China at an early age and had received all his schooling and training in China and had never had an opportunity of being admitted to practice in any other jurisdiction.

Whereupon, Mr. Husar offered that if the defendant could show he had been admitted to practice medicine, or had a license from any college in any part of the world he would be prepared to dismiss the prosecution. The district attorney went on to state that the case was a serious one, for if Mr. Franklin's contention were correct, any charlatan or faker, without any license whatsoever, could hold himself up as being a physician and treat the afflicted and even by their lack of knowledge cause death. The prosecution expected to show in this instance that at least four people had died from the mistreatment of the defendant. Counsel expected to show that the defendant was no more a physician than he, counsel, was, that he was a charlatan, had taken fees from people, had attempted to treat them and that in four cases his mistreatment had resulted in the deaths of the patients.

Mr. Lurton overruling the demurrer, Mr. Franklin waived the preliminary hearing, upon which defendant was bound over for trial before the United States Court for China, bail being allowed in the sum of Gold $500.

Vote Of Confidence Is Taken In Italian Chamber Of Deputies

(Reuter's Service)

Rome, Nov. 22.—After a debate which lasted for several days, during which the Government policy at many points was criticised, the Chamber of Deputies voted confidence by 337 votes to 17. Eighteen deputies abstained.

The debate which hinged on the home affairs policy was characterised by attacks on the Government for curtailing freedom of press and engaging in unconstitutional practices as regards municipal and provincial government.

The attitude of sections of the Liberal party showed that while the former Premiers Signor Giolitti and Signor Orlando were definitely against the Government the former Premier Signor Salandra, representing the majority of the Liberals in the House of Representatives, promised to support the Fascismo regime.

Prior to the division the Minister of the Interior, Signor Federzoni, undertook to introduce an urgency measure dealing with freedom of press.

In winding up the debate on home affairs Signor Mussolini declared that he had always tried hard to separate party affairs from Government affairs. He solemnly promised to submit all questions to Parliament with a view to a return to a normal constitutional regime.

Undesirables Are Before Mixed Court

Another round-up of undesirable Russians by police resulted in six men appearing before Mixed Court yesterday. Some were charged with loitering. Two others were alleged to have taken money from the counters of the Bank of China and the Hongkong and Shanghai Bank while owners of the money were counting their change. The case of Writz Lachter was held up while police learn if the United States will admit Lachter. He said he was enroute to the United States, via Shanghai, when arrested. Solomon Gilberg promised to leave Shanghai. Police will put him on the train. Others were remanded.

rendered by the firmen and she was taken to the Chinese, Red Cross Hospital by the police ambulance. She is in a very critical condition, little hope being entertained for her recovery.

A portion of the roof of the dwelling, which was one-story, became ignited, but the inmates of the premises held the outbreak with buckets of water until the brigade arrived and it was quickly extinguished with a handpump.

At 12. 23. p.m. on Saturday, Central turned out to Sa24 in an alleyway off North Shantung Road, premises used as a silk merchant's offices and dwelling where an electric wire had fused setting fire to a wooden partition. The outbreak was quickly dealt with, a chemical extinguisher being used.

At 1:12 p.m. on the 23rd, Hongkew were called to a dwelling house, No. Xc 160 off North Chekiang Road, where an unprotected cooking stove used on a drying-stage had ignited the surrounding woodwork. An early call and prompt work on the part of the occupiers of the premises, who got to work with buckets of water, prevented the fire from getting a hold and the damage was trivial.

Less than half-an-hour after Hongkew's call, Bubbling Well were called to a small outbreak, at 1:35 at the Ming Sung Cotton Mill, Warren Road, where a serious outbreak occurred about three months ago. An overheated drying machine had caused some cotton waste to ignite, but the employes had dealt with the situation before the division arrived.

At 3:24 p.m. on Sunday Sinza turned out in response to a telephome call and found that embers falling from a cooking stove on the drying-stage at the rear of No. M 1931, a dwelling off Avenue Road, had ignited a quantity of wood shavings. The fire had been extinguished by the inmates and there was no damage to the building.

The Peking Leader has been taken over by a corporation of Americans and British with Mr. Grover Clark, who has been editor, becoming principal owner.

Arrangements for the transfer of the newspaper from the Chinese ownership under the managing directorship of Mr. Leong Chiu-shui to Mr. Clark's control were completed November 12.

A temporary committee composed of Mr. H. C. Faxon, who has been president of the American Chamber of Commerce of Peking, Dr. H. S. Houghton, director of the Peking Union Medical College, and resident director of the China Medical Board, Mr. W. B. Pettus, head of the North China Union Language School, and Mr. J. Leighton Stuart, President of Yenching University, is arranging for the formation of the corporation to control and operate the Leader. A majority of the voting stock will be American-owned but other nationals will be welcomed to the corporation.

Mr. Clark has been in Peking for more than five years as professor of English Literature in the Peking National University. He has been editor of the Leader for three years. He is a graduate of Oberlein College and the University of Chicago.

Unimpaired Assets

GOING without life insurance is placing a great burden of risk upon your family and your enterprises. Carrying as large a line of insurance as you prudently can will often save to your estate much more than the amount of insurance itself. It will turn equities into unimpaired assets.

WAITING until you "can afford" more insurance entails hazards that the prudent, serious-minded person will avoid. We can be of real help to you in working out an insurance plan that will cover your needs. Without obligating you we shall be glad to discuss it with you upon request.

SMALL BORE MEET; J. M. WATSON WINS GRANDAGGREGATE

Very Bad Weather But Fair Percentages; Distribution Of Prizes

The long postponed Rifle Meeting of the Small Bore Rifle Club took place on Sunday, the 23rd inst. and truly the weather was unkind. The shoot opened at 9 a.m. sharp, with the ranges covered in a thick frost, and a bitter north wind blowing a gale. The Committee discussed the idea of a further postponement, but it was decided to carry on.

Good shooting naturally suffered owing to these bad conditions, but results showed quite a fair percentage. On two occasions all hands had to leave the mounds and rush to save the Secretary's tent, which had got the idea it was an airplane, and away went a number of the targets, etc., in to the ornamental water. Fortunately all records were saved.

As soon as the shoot ended in the afternoon all hands made a quick move up to the Range huts for tea and something hot. Results were worked out, and the Prizes won were kindly distributed by Mrs. Hanson.

Full results were as follows:—

NANYANG DEFEATS NANKING PLAYERS IN COLLEGE GAME

Victors Play Excellently, But Shooting Not Up To Standard

Nanyang University trimmed Nanking University in the Intercollegiate football yesterday afternoon at Zikawei. The score was 2-0.

Nanyang started with confidence, and attacked Nanking with a rush. The left wing, playing good football, sent in a hot one which hit the upright. The Nanking forwards then carried the ball well down the field but Yen checked well and passed the ball back to Nanyang forwards. The husky Nanking full-backs were on the job, however and kept the Nanyang forwards from passing them. Both goals were visited, but nothing resulted. The first half ended with Nanyang attacking Nanking, several shots going astray.

The second half saw Nanyang forwards playing a better game, and pressing hard on Nanking. Shot after shot rained on Nanking goal but they were too wide or too slow. It was evident that Nanyang had the best of the game but the question was when they would break the spell. It was not until the half was twenty-five minutes old that Wen sent in a beautiful shot which shook the net. After this break, Zee soon added another one, and Nanyang threatened to pile up goals, but the Nanking backs played a good defensive game and checked Nanyang.

The game was all in Nanyang's favor and they should have scored more frequently, but they had the misfortune of hitting the bar several times.

Mr. Clifford refereed.

UNION CLUB BEAT AURORA STUDENTS IN LEAGUE MATCH

Big Crowd Sees Game; Three Culture Club Wins From Southern

The Union Football Club played their first game of the All-China League against Aurora University last Sunday on the latter's field before a big crowd, and won by the score of 5-1. These teams are about the strongest in the League, and the Union team has now disposed of its most dangerous opponent.

The Union team started with the wind behind them and immediately bombarded Aurora goal. But they had difficulty in controlling the ball owing to the strong wind, which hampered play throughout, and twenty minutes elapsed before they opened the score. A corner kick was given to Union, and Ting took the kick. The ball went right into the goal, the wind helping, but the Aurora goalie made no attempt to stop it, not knowing the change in the rules permitting a goal direct from a corner kick. Lee soon added another one, and Chen made the score 3-0 before lemon-time.

On resumption of play, it was expected that the ball would be kept in the Union territory. Most of the play was in front of the Aurora goal in spite of the wind, however, showing that the Union team was much stronger than the home eleven. Aurora tried hard to score, but found the Union defense very difficult to pass. Lee scored his second goal with a fine shot and Chen added another. Nevertheless, Aurora worked hard and fought desperately. Toward the end, they managed to score a goal with a good shot from a difficult angle. The game was

Boxing Notes

By Harvard

This week's bouts at the Palais de Danse will be held on Friday night, as will be noted from the advertisement elsewhere on this page. This change has been made owing to Thursday being Thanksgiving Day, when many fight fans will be busy with their dinners and—er—allied amusements. The following day most of them will be spoiling for a fight, and the Boxing Association is doing them the kindness of supplying several.

The main affair is between Pete Alberto and Benny Forral. We said quite a bit about Alberto last week, when we reported his projected trip to America with Canion and Manager de Tagle. It only remains to recall to fans the fact that he has finished two of his three fights in Shanghai by kayoing the other boy, and the third fight was with Forral, when a draw decision was given.

This draw decision, by the way, was considered pretty raw by some, as Alberto landed hard on Benny's tummy many times, and had him in trouble again and again, though Forral took a surprising amount and came back repeatedly for more. A plucky fight, however, is not an excuse for a man's being given a draw when he has been outfought.

Both boys are clever. The assumption that Forral is the more clever of the two, which some misguided individuals have been heard to express, is quite without foundation. Benny certainly has quickness and cleverness above the average. There is no doubt of that, and in fact he has shown himself to be the equal of any of the bantams here excepting the title-holder himself.

When compared with Alberto, however, it is impossible to say that Forral is more clever. Alberto is an older and more experienced fighter, and wise to a good many things which Forral has very little conception of. In his last fight with Benny, which was also their first meeting in the ring here, Alberto left himself wide open a good bit of the time, inviting Forral to hammer him, but Benny was not inclined to walk into Pete's southpaw solar plexus, and contented himself with blocking as many of Alberto's swings as he could with his elbows. If Pete cuts loose next Friday night, as he must have done in those Manila fights when he licked Johnny Hill, Syd Keenan, and Faustino de Dios, Forral will be in trouble from the word go, and there should be a kayo finish with Alberto on the right end of it.

At any rate, it should be a first-class scrap, as Forral is game, and not inclined to quit until he has to.

Canion, who was definitely licked by Garcia last Saturday night, wants a return fight next week. We pointed out in these columns the day of the fight that Garcia was the more clever of the two, always kept himself in condition, and if the fight went the limit it was likely that he would get the decision. Our remarks, it appears, were fully justified by last Saturday's fight, though Garcia won by a bigger margin than the writer anticipated.

This question of condition, to which we drew attention, was of much importance in Saturday's fight. Rufe failed to put up the fight he did when they last met, and his increase of a pound or two in weight didn't do him a bit of good, as it was to some extent the result of "taking it easy." Garcia, on the other hand, was in splendid shape. He is constantly in condition, and is ready for a fight on very little notice. These things are important, as Rufe must learn sooner or later, as a man must take the very best care of himself in order to reach the top in the fighting game. He can't stand still, and be satisfied with himself as he is. He must either go ahead or go backward, and the only way to go ahead is to take the best possible care of one's self.

Rufe, it is true, has had a bit of bad luck. In his fight with Matty Smith he had his lip cut open. It was a bad cut, and Rufe says it was from Smith's elbow, which seems very possible. Several stitches had to be taken in the lip, and Rufe laid off hard training for a while. Then, in sparring practice with Villa the day the champ arrived, Pancho opened the lip again, when it was apparently healed. (Garcia opened it again last Saturday night.)

This of course prevented any hard sparring practice, but it did not prevent Canion from doing everything else which goes into the fighter's training. Garcia had almost as serious trouble with his hands when he last fought Rufe, and was also badly bruised, but though he was unable to use his fists for a time—in this sense being worse off than Rufe—he took care of himself, and didn't fatten or slow up. Last Saturday night showed the results.

Garcia is now entitled to meet Johnny Hill. The showing he put up last Saturday marks him as by all odds the best featherweight now fighting here, and the prize dangled before both boys in this fight was a bout with Johnny for the featherweight title here, which bout is now coming to Leonardo.

When the local champ will arrive is not yet certain. In spite of his poor fight against Moro a few weeks ago, Johnny is still asking for a chance against bigger game in the Philippines, but there are some more important fights on just now, and he is likely to be passed over for a while. The proper thing to do now is to get Johnny up here as soon as possible. Garcia is the boy to meet him, and Canion will have a

INTERPORT TRIAL COMING; NO GAMES IN FIRST DIVISION

Football Matches In Second Division; Club Plays Hanbury School

The Interport Trial match is scheduled to be played on Pioneer Field next Saturday, and on account of this there will be no matches in the First Division of the Football Association.

There are the following matches scheduled in the Second Division: S. F. C. v Hanbury, Police ground; S. R. C. v Police, S. R. C. ground; St. Xaviers v P. S. A., Hongkew; Public School v Jewish, Hongkew; D. F. C. v Navy, Wid Mon ground.

Last Saturday's game between the Jewish Recreation Club and the Recs, in the Second Division, was erroneously reported by us as a victory for the Recs by a 3-0 score. We regret this error. The score was correct, but the Recs were on the wrong side of it, the Jewish Club doing the winning. This victory puts the Jewish team in seventh place in the Second Division, pressing the Germans for sixth, as may be noted from the League standings given below.

SARAZEN MAKES HOLE IN ONE BY ELECTRIC LIGHT

Wonderful Young Golfer's Remarkable Shot In Night Golf Test

(Reuter's American Service)

Briarcliff Manor, N. Y., Oct. 28.—Before a crowd estimated at 10,000 Mr. Gene Sarazen, former professional golf champion, tonight made the first hole in the Briarcliff lodge course in one by the light of two powerful searchlights and several smaller lamps. This is the first time such a feat has been accomplished on an illuminated course.

When the ball landed on the green a few feet from the hole and then rolled in, the spectators burst into applause. The ball was plainly visible throughout its flight from the tee to the hole.

Mr. Sarazen's performance was the second night's test of night golf, staged as a feature of the annual convention of the Illuminating Engineers' Society.

Powerful lights were erected at regular intervals along the fairway and were supplemented by two searchlights, of 4,000,000 and 1,000,000 candle-power.

Orioles Have Easy Win Over Catholic Circle Quintet

The Orioles basketball squad visited the Shanhgai Catholic Circle Club gymnasium last night and took a walkaway victory from them by the score 67-13. The Orioles have now played two games together and show excellent form with good snappy team work, and last night proved altogether too much for the Portuguese five.

The winners had everything their own way throughout the game and kept the ball in their possession a greater part of the time, while their shooting was very sure. Kabelitz, the speedy center for the victors, again had the misfortune of injuring his leg, and left the game during the opening half, but returned to play in the latter part of the game. Frankie Johnston relieved Kabelitz, and netted eight baskets in the first half, which ended 30-6.

Canavarro and Perpetuo were the only scorers for the Portuguese in the opening stanza, the former scoring twice. These two players repeated their performance in the second half while Collaco added a foul shot, making up their 13 points. Kabelitz came back at this point of the game and dropped some seven goals into the basket, including one foul.

The game was rather rough but yet was featured by good sportmanship shown by all.

Johnston and Kabelitz were high scorers, with 16 goals between them.

The score follows:—

Orioles	67	Cath. Circle	13
Bell (Capt.)	rf	Perpetuo
Upson, Molem	lf	Collaco
Kabelitz,		Canavarro
Johnston	c	(Capt.)
Mahon	rg	Pereira
Lewis,	lg	Gutierrez,

Goals from floor: Johnston 9, Kabelitz 7, Upson 5, Bell 4, Molem 4, Canavarro 4 Perpetuo 2, Mahon 2, Jesu 2.

Goals from fouls: Kabelitz and Collaco.

The game which was scheduled to take place tonight between the Orioles and the U. S. Penguin quintet has been cancelled.

A big crowd turned out to see the game.

perfect right to challenge the loser, whichever it is. If Rufe wins his fight he will be entitled to challenge the champ, whether it's Hill or Garcia.

The eight-round special event next Friday will be between Pate and Hilardo. Neither of these boys have as yet earned any medals as scientific boxers, and as far as they were concerned old John L. lived and died in vain. One thing they have learned, however, in their youthful career, is that if they hit a fellow hard enough and in a lucky place he'll fall down and not get up until the fellow in the black suit in the middle of the ring says ten, and perhaps not till a good bit after that. As we have remarked, they have learned this all-important fact, and both are acquiring, or doing their blessedest to acquire, a kayo habit, so we're likely to see a good fight and some hard slamming in this number, with a knockout finish quite likely.

In the six-round second event Charlie Xavier will meet Frisco Peralto, and in the four-round curtain-raiser Young Garcia will go up against Romulo.

California Alumni Revive College Days At Football Banquet

Alumni of the University of California to the number of forty banqueted at the Union Club last night in celebration of the annual football game between California and Leland Stanford, Jr. University. The game was played last Saturday and the score was a tie, 20 to 20, as a cable read at the function testified. Dr. Fong F. Sec. of the Commercial Press presided and the California songs were led by Mrs. Harry Kingman. Between courses there were speeches, the first being by Mr. F. J. Raven of the American-Oriental Bank, a member of the class of '99 who told of the reunion of his class last May. Miss Gertrude B. Adfit, class of '22 described last year's football game and Miss Hasel MacNair, class of '20 told of last year's home-coming celebration. The last speech was delivered by Dr. Kiang Kang-yu, president of the Southern University of Shanghai who spoke on the subject, "What Can California Alumni do for Chinese Students?"

Busy Afternoon Puts Nyi In Jai

Nyi Foh-hai, 26 years old, hawker, had a busy Sunday afternoon, Mixed Court hearings yesterday indicated. At 2 o'clock he attempted to extort money from a passerby on Avenue Edward VII. Then he tried another. At 3 o'clock he was arrested with an axe in his possession, apparently starting out for someone else. The court decided the city could get along withut Nyi, sentencing him to five years and expulsion after that is finished.

Wine, Women And Song Are Barred At Banquet In Hangchow

(China Press Correspondence)

Hangchow, Nov. 22.—Hangchow is all agog today over a military banquet participated in by the graduates of the Paoting Military Academy at which no wine was drunk, no women were present and no songs were sung. The banquet was held in the restaurant of the Y.M.C.A. and about an hour before it was scheduled to start somebody hung up a sign on the door telling the world that the feast was to be both dry and quiet, otherwise to be without wine, women and song. And so it was the conversation on the streets today regarding the "strange" function.

It seems that the recent victory by Marshal Sun Chuan-fang has brought into Hangchow a considerable number of northern men who are graduates of the Paoting Military Academy of Paotingfu, Chihli Province. In the first and second divisions of the troops left in Hangchow when General Lu evacuated, there were also a number of Paoting alumni, so it recently occurred to the victors that it would be nice for them to give a banquet to their fellow alumni on the "enemy" side. So the banquet was held and more than a hundred attended at a dollar a cover. The officers of both camps pledged undying allegiance to their brothers in good strong Y.M.C.A. coffee and as stated before there were no wine, women or songs.

U. S. NAVY CHIEF SEEKS FUND FOR MODERNISATION

Appropriation To Be Asked For Improvements On Older Ships

(Reuter's American Service)

Washington, Nov. 22.—Mr. Wilber, the Secretary of the Navy, in his annual report to Congress, states that he intends to request a special appropriation for the modernisation of six of the older battleships of the American Fleet which he deems essential in order to maintain the ratio of naval strength.

Mr. Wilber does not mention the program for ten cruisers and sundry auxiliary craft which failed to secure passage in the final hours of the last session of Congress. It is understood that he proposes to take this up in a special report to the Sub-Committee on Naval Appropriations.

The Secretary of the Navy says that the approved policy of maintaining a fleet on the Pacific Coast should be adhered to and predicts completion of the program for the scrapping of ships under the Washington Agreement within the prescribed time. He calls attention to the need for a new Congressional policy concerning the oil reserves in the event of success of the Government's suits against the Teapot Dome leases.

Gold Bar Shipment To Go To England

(Reuter's American Service)

New York, Nov. 23.—The New York Times reports that a shipment of gold bars to England to the value of $2,000,000 is being prepared in compliance with a request from bankers in London, presumably in connection with the German loan. The newspaper remarks that this will be the largest shipment of gold since the end of the War.

Pending the arrival of Dr. Tsai, who is at present spending a vacation in France, Mr. Li Yu-ying will be in charge of these affairs.

Huang Fu Presides As Cabinet Meets

Peking, Nov. 14.—The Cabinet met this morning under the presidency of Mr. Huang Fu. No important announcements were made afterwards, except that Mr. Yu Chun-nien and Mr. Chiang Hsueh-han, Counsellors of the Ministry of Communications, were relieved of their posts at their own request, Messrs. Chiang Tsun-wei and Tang Chow having been appointed to succeed them.

Working Schedule Drafted By Conference On Opium

(Reuter's Service)

Geneva, Nov. 22.—After eight hours' discussion yesterday the business committee of the Second Opium Conference drew up a plan which was submitted to the plenary conference this morning.

The plan provides for the appointment of two general committees for the purpose of considering plans for the limitation of manufacture of drugs and the limitation production of raw material for export and also for considering general plans for amending the Hague Opium Convention. The plan also provides for the appointment of six sub-committees, one of which will be composed of medical, pharmaceutical and statistical experts, which will consider the report of the League's Health Committee regarding the need of drugs for medicinal purposes.

At the subsequent discussion the Indian delegate desired to reserve the right to discuss the competence of the Conference.

Later, replying to the criticisms of Sir Malcolm Delevingne, the reporter of the business committee pointed out that there was no agreement with manufacturing countries in respect to limitation owing to competition. He objected to the inclusion of hashish in this conference though he agreed that views might be exchanged on that subject.

The Conference adopted the plan by 31 votes to 1, with a reservation by China and two abstentions, namely, the United States and Uruguay. The former's action was based on the absence of assurances on the part of the Conference that the American suggestions would be entertained.

The Conference also adopted the Polish proposal urging equality of representations on the subcommittees between the consuming and producing countries for the purpose of facilitating an understanding.

The Spanish proposal in favor of distributing among the delegations addresses from private associations was likewise adopted.

(Reuter's Service)

Berlin, Nov. 22.—The Chinese Government has given a sympathetic hearing to the proposal made by the German Ambassador in Peking that both countries be bound by a system of import certificates recommended by the League of Nations, which system only allows the shipment of opium if the country of destination permits it.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, Nov. 17.—The International Anti-Opium Association, Peking, forwards the following for publication: "The All-India Congress Committee, that is, the Executive of the National Congress, which consists of between 60 and 80 persons, has passed the following resolution at Ahmedabad:

"'In the opinion of the All-India Congress Committee the opium policy of the Government of India is altogether contrary to the moral welfare of the people of India and other countries.'

"The All-India Congress Committee is further of opinion that the people of India would welcome the total abolition of the opium traffic for purposes of revenue and is also of opinion that the production of opium is out of all proportion to the medical requirements of India."

The slogan "Seattle, Meeting Place of Occident and Orient 1925" indicates the spirit animating the committee of the Seattle Chamber of Commerce, which is determined to make the 12th annual National Foreign Trade Convention at Seattle June 24-26 of next year noteworthy in the annals of American foreign trade conferences for its emphasis upon America's relations with the nations across the Pacific. A group of Seattle business men will journey to the Far East during January to extend in person the invitation of the Seattle Chamber of Commerce and the China Club of Seattle to the business men of the Far East to attend the big Convention in June. Mr. William Pigott, Chairman of the National Foreign Trade Convention Committee of the Seattle Chamber of Commerce, states that Seattle will at this convention bring the American business public into closer contact with the great world of the Pacific than has ever been done before at any other meeting of American business men. The Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce of the U. S. Department of Commerce is already making preparations to place its organisation at the services of the Committee in charge of the arrangements for the June Convention. The Pacific Coast commercial bodies will cooperate in every possible way to make Seattle's slogan a reality.

Withdrawal Of Egyptian Forces In Sudan Ordered

Church included Viscout Allenby, Zaghlul Pasha, a representative of King Fuad, Mr. Asquith, the Diplomatic Corps, and representatives of the foreign communities. Captain Campbell, who had sufficiently recovered from his wounds to be present, accompanied Lady Stack and her daughter.

Huge crowds lined the route and windows of the houses were packed with sightseers.

The cortege grew as it proceeded. Senators and Deputies and numerous civilians who were unable to gain admittance to the church joined the ranks of the procession which passed along in hushed silence, only broken by the booming of guns and the moaning of aeroplanes circling overhead.

The behavior of the crowds at Cairo was unexceptionable but reports from Alexandria mention a hostile demonstration outside St. Mark's Cathedral during the memorial service, a party of men shaking their fists and shouting, "Down with the English" and other violent expressions.

(Reuter's Service)

London, Nov. 22.—It is pointed out that the despatch of the East Lancashires to Egypt is purely a precautionary measure and does not indicate that the situation has grown worse. Possibly another battalion of British troops will be ordered from Gibraltar should the necessity arise.

(Reuter's Service)

London, Nov. 22.—The opening of the note to Egypt, as published by the Foreign Office, says that this murder, which holds up Egypt to the contempt of civilised peoples, is the natural outcome of the campaign of hostility against British subjects in Egypt and the Sudan which has not been discouraged by the Egyptian Government and has been fomented by organisations in close contact with that Government. It recalls Mr. Ramsay MacDonald's warning to Egypt of the consequences of failing to stop this campaign. The note says that by allowing the Sirdar to be murdered the Egyptian Government have proved that they are incapable or unwilling to protect foreign lives.

The concluding clause of the Note says that failing immediate compliance with the British demands, the British Government will forthwith take appropriate action with a view to safeguarding their interests in Egypt and the Sudan.

(Reuter's Service)

Cairo, Nov. 23.—The Chamber adjourned for ten minutes this afternoon as a mark of sympathy for the Sirdar.

On Zaghlul Pasha's arrival later, after seeing the King, the Chamber decided to hold a secret session.

It is understood that at a late hour the Premier told the Chamber that he was prepared to accept some of the British demands and that the Chamber passed a vote of confidence in him.

(Reuter's Service)

Khartum, Nov. 22.—A memorial service to the Sirdar was held this morning, attended by all classes of the community.

(Reuter's Service)

Cairo, Nov. 22.—The presentation of the British note today was attended by an impressive ceremonial. Field-Marshal Viscount Allenby in a lounge suit proceeded by motorcar to Zaghlul Pasha's office escorted by the 16th Lancers. He read the note to Zaghlul Pasha in English and then handed it over with a French translation. On quitting, Field Marshal Viscount Allenby stood at attention while the Royal salute was sounded after which, accompanied by the cavalry, he returned to the Residency.

The note to Zaghlul Pasha is in two parts, one laying down penalties and the second specifying requirements respecting the Army in the Sudan and the protection of foreign interests in Egypt.

(Reuter's Service)

Cairo, Nov. 23.—The newspaper Ahram declares that at a secret session of Parliament last night it was unanimous in supporting Zaghlul Pasha's intended attitude which, apparently, is to reject the demands, except those strictly applicable to the crime, namely the apology, the indemnity and the capture and punishment of the criminals.

It is understood that the reply will be handed at the Residency before midday today.

(Reuter's Service)

Cairo, Nov. 23.—It is understood that Zaghlul Pasha intends to request for an extension of the time limit by 24 hours for a reply to the British notes, but the opinion is generally expressed that he will only agree to the demands for apology, indemnity and capture and punishment of the assassins.

(Reuter's Service)

Cairo, Nov. 23.—The Egyptian reply to the British note is couched in polite terms. It agrees to the demands for apology, punishment of the criminals, indemnity of £500,000 and promises to prevent any disturbance of peace by demonstrations.

Zaghlul Pasha's reply says that the demand with regard to the Sudan breaks the status quo and is contrary to the Constitution according to which King Fuad is Commander-in-Chief of the Egyptian Army. It considers that the demand with regard to the Gezirah irrigation is premature and says that the position of the foreign officials is regulated by a diplomatic agreemen which cannot be modified without the consent of Parliament. The reply contends that a liberalist policy compatible with the principle of independence has been adopted towards foreigners and says that no observations have been received from other foreign Powers.

(Reuter's Service)

Cairo, November 23.—Zaghlul Pasha read the reply in the Chamber of Deputies, which after that passed a vote of confidence in the Government with one dissentient.

(Reuter's Service)

Gibraltar, November 23.—The 1st battalion of the Buffs is sailing for Egypt on November 29.

(Reuter's Service)

Cairo, Nov. 23.—Field-Marshal Viscount Allenby promptly replied to Zaghlul Pasha that in view of the refusal of the requirements regarding the Sudan instructions are being sent to the Government of the Sudan to carry out the withdrawal of the Egyptian military forces from the Sudan and also informing the Government of the Sudan that they are at liberty to increase the area of irrigation to an unlimited extent.

Field-Marshal Viscount Allenby added: "Your Excellency will learn in due course what action is being taken in view of the refusal of Requirement 7 regarding the protection of foreign interests." The reply further requests the payment of the indemnity by noon tomorrow.

(Reuter's Service)

London, Nov. 23.—It is officially stated that the Egyptian indemnity will be devoted to benevolent objects in the Sudan subject to a provision for the victims of the outrage.

(Reuter's Service)

Cairo, Nov. 23.—It is stated that another alleged assailant of Sir Lee Stack was arrested last night.

Lady Stack and her daughter are leaving for England today.

The whole British garrison of Alexandria paraded the town owing to yesterday's anti-British demonstration. Cairo is quiet but Egyptian mounted police are parading the streets in order to suppress possible disturbances by striking students.

(Reuter's Service)

Cairo, Nov. 23.—The march of the British troops through Alexandria was followed by a renewal of small anti-British demonstrations by students.

This morning two aeroplanes from Cairo made a demonstration at Tantah where there had been some restiveness, but the country has been generally tranquil up to the present.

The publication of the British notes last night caused a sensation in Cairo. People eagerly bought up special editions of the newspapers and there was much excitement.

(Reuter's Service)

London, Nov. 23.—With regard to two important demands in the British note, it is pointed out, firstly, that the retention of British judicial and financial advisers relates to three officials whose powers were encroached upon under the Zaghlul regime. Secondly, with regard to the demand for unlimited irrigation in the Sudan it is recalled that an extensive irrigation scheme at Gezira for the purpose of cotton growing, assisted by the Sudan Government, was voluntarily curtailed to 300,000 feddans by Viscount Allenby in order to placate the Egyptians, who feared that damming the Upper Nile would curtail their supplies. An authoritative statement of the British point of view declares that nothing in the present note will diminish the Egyptian water supply.

It adds that the steps taken do not interfere with the declaration of Egyptian Independence in 1922 nor with the agreement of 1899 with regard to the condominium of the Sudan.

(Reuter's Service)

London, November 24.—The firm stand adopted by the Government in reference to Egypt meets with practically unanimous approval in Great Britain, and it is thought that both in substance and in tone the communications unquestionably will be approved by British peoples overseas.

The severity of the demands is considered to be fully justified by all the circumstances. It is emphasised that the matter admits of no foreign participation—on the contrary, Great Britain is defending the interests of all civilised nations.

Ku Klux Klan Kontinues Klucking In United States

Elections may come and go in the United States but the Ku Klux Klan seemingly Kluxes on forever.

That's the information brought to Shanghai by persons just arrived from the west coast.

The latest development of the idea which gained a new start down in Texas four years ago is the organisation of the junior Ku Klux Klan.

The infant klan members seem to have been given the occupation of making older Kluxers welcome in towns and hamlets, according to the arrivals here.

Signs, boldly painted and just as boldly displayed, are to be found on bridges and signposts at the entrance to coast towns along the many paved highways.

"K. I. G. Y." read the signs, meaning to the Unwashed, "Klan, I Greet You." What the signs mean to the members is not known but "all samee" the signs are there and evidences are given every week or so of the presence of the clubs in the cities.

The white hooded, white-sheeted figure is slowly going out of style with the coming in a less secrecy, the arrivals say.

And whether the Klan is guilty or whether it's just the psychology of the thing, many automobilists refuse to pick up passengers along the road as it used to be done. Too many "hikers" have proved to be highway robbers.

The same idea exists regarding motor "wrecks" along the road. Motorists have stopped to aid broken down cars to find that the wreck is only a "stall" and the "wrecked" prove to be hold-up men.

Existence of the Ku Klux Klan in Shanghai is again suspected by officials. Several letters have recently been received by various firms, advising of the "underworld" activities of certain employes of the firm. One letter is known to have been received which contained snappy threats regarding the action of certain prize fight seconds at a recent scrap. The letter was written in red ink in lieu of life blood, and signed with some sort of an insigned with of arms. Local offdistinct coat of arms. Local officials are investigating the letter. Officials say the Klan was believed exterminated more than a year ago in Shanghai when several secret meetings were broken up.

$70,000 LOAN IS NANTUNGCHOW'S SOLE WAR LEVY

Business Conditions Better Than Ever; Cotton Crop Excellent

(China Press Correspondence)

Nantungchow, Ku., Nov. 20.—The people of this city have been fortunate during the recent fighting. While we are not far from the fighting area there has been no disturbance. The only trouble suffered here was the payment of $70,000 demanded by the Kiangsu governor. There was considerable alarm at one time when soldiers from nearby districts were being marched through the country to the port, Tien Sung Gan. Their officers threatened to make the line of march by way of Nantungchow, which would have been a detour of some miles. By a gift of $7,000, a feast to the first body of soldiers five miles from Nantang, and also by an exchange of telegrams with the governor at Nanking, the soldiers were induced to go directly to the river port and embark for the front.

During the fighting, this city was full of refugees from Shanghai and Nanking. They were for the most part wealthy people who live in hotels and rented apartments, and who brought in no small amount of money. Business was better than usual. Since the war closed the cotton mills have opened. An excellent cotton crop has been picked and is selling at about $50 a dan. There is probably more general prosperity than at any time since the collapse of the World War boom.

The real sufferers in this vicinity were the soldiers. About 1,000 men were sent from here, and not 200 of them returned. The remainder were killed, so the survivors report. Most of the soldiers from here were local men, or men who had been here several years, and had families nearby.

The families of the men who failed to return are now destitute and facing the cold of winter. In view of the fact that Marshal Wu Pei-fu used these lives as pawns in his campaign for "unification by force," it would seem incredible that he now proposes, according to the latest news to reach here, again to use the lives of Kiangsu men in a campaign for division by force. Possibly such a report as the latter is only another fabrication of his enterprising press agent, who sent out telegrams recently to various cities vilifying Feng Yu-hsiang. One was received here, but had no effect whatever.

Tong Shao-Yi's Daughter Follows Sister To Altar

Within a few days of each other, two auspicious events have occurred in two well-known Chinese families in Shanghai—there being a double event in the case of each. At the Carlton last Thursday, Miss Mabel Tong, daughter of the ex-Premier of China, was married to Dr. Paotsang Peter Liang, son of Mr. M. T. Liang, ex-Minister for Foreign Affairs and now Director of Rehabilitation of Weihaiwei. In the same week, Mr. Kum Hon-sun, a leading member of the local Cantonese community, who for no less than half a century has been connected with the Shanghai and Hongkew Wharf Company, Limited, was presented with a number of handsome souvenirs on the occasion of the completion of his half century's service. Yesterday afternoon the two families were united by the marriage of Miss Edith Tong, daughter of Mr. Tong Shao-yi, to Mr. Keen Sien-kum, son of Mr. Kum Hon-sun, compradore to the Shanghai and Hongkew Wharf Company, Limited. Thus each family has had the unique distinction of celebrating two auspicious events within a few days of each other, and consequently there was a big throng present yesterday afternoon to witness the happy function.

The wedding took place at 266 Broadway, where a steady stream of guests, both foreign and Chinese, began pouring in shortly after 4 o'clock. The Chinese staff's quarters in the premises of the Shanghai and Hongkew Wharf Company were tastefully converted into a pavilion beflagged at the top, with the walls covered with innumerable scrolls in red and gold received from various organisations and individuals. Seats were arranged for about 300 persons around the altar where the ceremony was to take place. After all the guests had assembled, the bride, who looked radiant in a charming creation of white, arrived leaning on the arm of her father, and was accompanied by Miss Chu, maid of honor, and the Misses Chen and Tong, flower girls. The best men were Mr. Pan Ming-fon, Municipal Compradore, and Mr. S. K. Tong. As the bridal procession entered, Miss Pan played the Wedding March in very pleasing style. The wedding ceremony itself was very brief and took only a few minutes to perform, being entirely civil and conducted by Mr. Alexander Ting, of Hansons, simplicity being the keynote of the proceedings.

At the conclusion of the ceremony, the happy pair were the recipients of felicitations from their large circle of friends. The whole affair was a simple, unostentatious one characteristic of the heads of the two families which were united by marriage yesterday afternoon.

Registration Law In Philippines Is Opposed By Chinese

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Manila, November 24.—The Chinese Consul has filed a protest to Major-General Wood, the Governor-General, against the New Immigration Act requiring the annual registration of all Chinese in the Philippines, and empowering the police to arrest all who fail to produce registration cards. The Chinese Consul claims that the United States Treaty has been violated.

Governor-General Wood will refer the matter to the local Attorney General before signing the measure, which has already passed the legislature.

HAVE YOU LITTLE CHILDREN?

If So Let Baby's Own Tablets Protect Their Health and Your Happiness

Every parent knows those times of anxiety when the little one suddenly becomes indisposed, is fretful, sleepless, feverish, keeps father and mother awake through the night longing to soothe and help yet not knowing what to do.

It is just at these times that Baby's Own Tablets, kept ready in the family medicine cabinet, prove the right remedy. So quickly do they bring ease and sleep to the painracked little body and weary eyes that they seem almost to work by magic. Yet it is all done in the most natural way, for the Tablets are absolutely pure, contain not one atom of narcotic or other harmful drug, and can do nothing but good even to the most delicate babe in arms.

Most of the troubles of infancy and childhood arise in the first place from stomach or bowels. Baby's Own Tablets gently remove bowel obstructions, sweeten the stomach, check diarrhoea, relieve cold and croup, allay teething pains, soothe the nerves, expel worms. Chemists sell them, or post free 60 cents the vial, from Dr. Williams Medicine Co., 6u Kiangse Road, Shanghai.

Rubber Position Analysed By Local Expert

Mr. G. M. W. Hummel Explains The Situation At Yesterday's Pengkalan Meeting

Mrs. G. M. W. Hummel delivered an important resume of the rubber situation in the course of his speech as Chairman at the fourth annual general meeting of the Pengkalan Durian Estate (1912), Ltd., held at the offices of the Secretaries and general managers, Messrs. J. P. Bisset and Co., yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Hummel said:

When last I had the pleasure of addressing you, though the price of Rubber was well below the highest for the year, it was not materially less than the minimum or pivotal price aimed at by the Stevenson Restriction Scheme and the statistical position was so much improved that it seemed not unreasonable to expect a steady, and later, a rising market. So far was this from being realised that in the early Spring the price commenced to fall and continued to do so rapidly until the low water mark of 9¾d. per lb. was touched, for one day only, in the middle of June.

I have referred to the statistical position at the end of last year as having been satisfactory, in brief that position was:

	tons
World production for the year (1923)	400,000
World consumption for the year (1923)	425,000
Stock in the East	24,000
Stock in the United Kingdom	60,000
Stock in the United States	73,000
World Stock	157,000

* Estimated World Production for 1924 405,000.
* Estimated World Consumption for 1924 440,000.

In other words not only had more Rubber been consumed in the year then closing, resulting in a reduction of reserve stocks by some 25,000 tons, but it was confidently anticipated that, without figuring on any material increase in consumption, stocks would be further reduced during this year by 55,000 tons, or, on the expected basis of consumption, to no more than 2¼ months' supply. Formerly it was considered that 4 months supply was the least that it was safe to work on.

Confidence in the outlook was increased by the fact that the principal Consumers in the United States as well as in Europe had agreed that an adequate supply at a reasonable price was a primary necessity to them; that they could not expect this unless Producers were obtaining a price that gave them a reasonable return on their investment; and, what seemed even more important, that the terms of the Stevenson Scheme were equitable, promised to do what was necessary, and did not aim at the obtaining of an unreasonably high price. From the latter one of the largest tyre manufacturers in the United States dissented. When Rubber was at its lowest last year this gentleman publicly claimed the credit for having smashed "Restriction." Be that as it may it is undeniable that a "bear" movement in the early part of last year, such as was always interfering with the free development of the market, and which was made possible only by the very considerable free stock that was available, met with such success that it grew into a strong attack having for its final objective the forcing of the abrogation of the Stevenson Scheme. In the course of this campaign the principal doubts and uncertainties that were made such extraordinarily successful use of were:

(a) A Labor Government was in office at Home. Labor was so opposed to anything savouring of protection that it would probably cancel the Restriction Scheme altogether.
(b) Producers in Mayaya with young or immature areas claimed a re-assessment on the grounds that they had been inequitably treated as compared to owners of mature Rubber. It was said that reassessment would mean greatly increased out-put.
(c) The Dutch Indies were going to enormously increase on their 1923 output.
(d) Consumption in the United States would be every materially less than in 1923, when there had been general over-production, particularly of tyres.
(e) The Rubber Growers' Association plan for a Central Selling Organisation to counteract co-operative buying by all United States Consumers hung fire so long that it was contended that difficulties of reconciling various interests had proved insurmountable.

THE SEQUENCE OF EVENTS

What actually happened in respect to all these "bear" arguments, taking them in the same order, very briefly was:

(a) The Labor Government announced that it had no intention of interfering with the Stevenson Scheme.
(b) A re-assessment favorable to young areas and reducing the maximum for mature trees to 400 lbs. per acre was agreed to. This assessment reduced Standard Production by some 24,000 tons.
(c) Dutch Indies production gave no indication of increasing by more than had been anticipated say from 140,000 tons dry weight to 180,000 tons.
(d) Taking during the first six months of the year only 155,000 tons as compared to 180,000 during the same period of 1923 it seemed as though the United States was going to take materially less. It then developed however that [illegible] sumers there had been imitating the camel in times of stress, eating their hump or emergency reserves. Since then they have been importing at the rate of 175,000 tons for the remainder of the year, or say, 350,000 tons for the entire year.
(e) The Rubber Growers' Association announced the completion of a Central Selling Scheme which had met with the approval of all concerned, but as it appeared that Restriction was going to unaided do all that was requisite for the salvaging of the industry, it had been indefinitely pigeon-holed.

THE TIDE TURNS

In June the tide turned, initially as the result of increased purchases by the United States. In August, because the price for the previous quarter had fallen below an average of 1s. 0d., the export allowance for Malaya and Ceylon was reduced to 55 percent. The market considered this as a final and definite answer to the opponents of Restriction, whose plaintive chorus had by this time been swelled by the hangers-on of the Rubber trade in Malaya, and many who ought to have known better, who had sold short around bottom prices and were already beginning to feel the pinch. In the result quite a number of so called dealers failed and it is satisfactory to record that purchases to cover their shortages materially assisted price recovery. In September the news, which I have already mentioned, about the reduction in Standard Production consequent on re-assessment had a strong tonic effect. In November owing to the average price not having averaged 1s. 3d. for the preceding quarter the export allowance was reduced to 50 percent. This, together with a much improved Continental outlook and a very active demand from the United States carried the price to 1s. 6d. from which there has not been, nor is there likely to be, any serious set-back.

At the end of the current year it is estimated that the World's reserves will be:

	Tons
In the East	20,000
In the United Kingdom	30,000
In the United States	30,000
	80,000

When Restriction was introduced the total was well in excess of 200,000 tons. I have already indicated what a powerful weapon excessive reserve stocks were in the hands of consumers, it behoves us therefore to be thankful for the change that Restriction has brought in this respect.

LOOKING TO THE FUTURE

Now with your permission I will indulge for a few minutes in the fascinating occupation of looking forward, which, because there are no unreasonably heavy stocks that can be used to upset all one's calculations, it is now possible to do with a great deal more confidence than formerly. Consumption for 1925 is variously estimated at between 450,000 and 500,000 tons. I now propose to base what I have to say about the probable position during the coming year on the mean of these figures, say 475,000, but at the same time, without desiring to pose as knowing more than the people responsible for the figures quoted, I cannot help thinking that they are being unduly conservative in estimating consumption at approximately the same figure as this year. My principal reasons being:

(a) Before the War the consumption of the United States and the Rest of the World were annually about the same. During the past 10 years the latter has not been consuming more than 50 percent of what the former has, and it is on approximately this proportion that these estimates have been arrived at. What I have in mind is that now that the terrible question of Reparations, which has stood in the way of the World's economic expansion for the past 5 years has been settled, it is surely reasonable to expect that in all countries there will be an increasing tendency to enjoy the amenities of life that the United States alone has had the time and means to indulge in during the past decade. In nothing is the difference more marked than in motor cars, the latter country being credited with 15,000,000 as compared to 3,000,000 in all other countries.
(b) The low pressure tyre is becoming increasingly popular, indeed on the cars of quite a number of manufactures it is now standard equipment. When its advantages are fully appreciated it seems reasonable to expect some speeding up in the matter of renewals, in other words an increased demand for tyres. Low pressure tyres are said to require 50 percent more Rubber than the older type; they also last longer, however that for the moment, does not affect us.
(c) Not only are new uses for Rubber continually being found, but its sale in forms in which we have known it for a greater or a shorter time are ever increasing. Two of the most important of such uses being footwear, and floor covering, the latter either superseding tiles or linoleumn, particularly in modern buildings and passenger steamers. How very considerable is the quantity so used is indicated by the following figures relating to Rubber Products manufactured in the United States last year—total value 950,000,000 Gold Dollars, of which 570,000,000 Gold Dollars represented tyres, and 380,000,000 Gold Dollars sundries. In the United States recently very great interest has been shown in the use of Rubber for roadways particularly where noise or vibration is exceptionally objectionable.

PRODUCING AREAS

However, let us assume that consumption does not exceed 475,000 tons. Where is that quantity coming from? Production now more or less naturally divides itself under three heads:—

1. Restricting areas—Malaya and Ceylon.
2. Dutch East Indies.
3. Other Countries.

Taking these in the reverse order to the above:—

All authorities agree that the rest of the World outside Malaya, Ceylon and the Dutch East Indies cannot produce more than 50,000 tons.

There is no concensus of opinion about the second. Some, claiming special knowledge of conditions in Sumatra, say that there will be another very material increase next year. Others, claiming equal personal acquaintance with the position, say that tapping has already reached maximum, that hitherto untapped areas that can now be drawn on will scarcely counter-balance trees rendered valueless as the result of bad and over-tapping. Time alone will show which opinion is correct. In the meantime, as production is said to depend wholly on price, it would seem that the fact that—since June, when the price commenced to rise, to the end of September, there had been no material increase,—indicates that there is not likely to be. Based on the average for the last quarter say 15,500 tons per month, a total of 175,000 tons is indicated as probable maximum.

Now it is obvious that the Restricting Areas have got to produce the balance of the World's requirements, provided it be agreed that stock estimated at approximately 2 months supply cannot be materially reduced further,—thus we have,—

	tons
Estimated consumption	475,000
Estimated production "other" Countries	50,000
Dutch East Indies	175,000
	225,000
To be produced by "Restricting" Countries	250,000

THE BRITISH GOVERNMENTS POSITION

For January of next year production for Malaya and Ceylon will be 50 percent thereafter each quarter an additional 5 or 10 percent, will be released according as price averages in excess of 1s/3d or 1s/6d in the preceding quarter. On the former basis maximum production is 185,000 tons, on the latter, which by he way means producing 90 percent for the last two months, 220,000 tons. As it is very doubtful if in practice the World's present reserves can be depleted by more than 25,000 tons without causing serious disturbance, it seems desirable that each quarter of next year should see a release of 10 percent which in effect means a price continuously in excess of 1s/6d. It has been said that if the price goes materially over 1s/6d the Government will step in and save consumers' pockets by authorising releases in excess of 10 percent. There seems no reason to apprehend anything of the kind. The Government refused to assist producers, to consider any modification, when the price was forced down by the tactics of consumers to 9¾d per lb., it would surely therefore be the height of absurdity for it to rush to the rescue of these consumers.

THE PENGKALAN'S AFFAIRS

In the course of further remarks, Mr. Hummel stated that the current position of the company was such that the directors had decided to pay an interim dividend of five percent. Prospects were good but the secretaries and general managers had again reduced their fees for last year by Tls. 1,800, and had renewed their contract at Tls. 1,800 per annum plus a commission of 5 percent of net profit instead of Tls. 4,200., thus being enabled to reduce controlling and management expenses by 40 percent in view of which they hoped to be able to produce at 10d. per lb. all-in.

RESOLUTIONS PASSED

Six shareholders were present personally, 33,358 shares being represented. Mr. Hummel was re-elected a director on motion of E. C. Gill, seconded by Mr. Woods, directors' remuneration was fixed at Tls. 300 per year on motion of the Chairman, seconded by E. C. Gill; and Messrs. Lowe, Bengham and Matthews were re-elected auditors at a remuneration of Tls. 300 on motion of the Chairman seconded by H. V. Hummel.

JAPANESE SILK TRADE STRONG AT PRESENT TIME

The silk reeling industry is healthy at this time but danger to the entire industry lies in rising silk prices coupled with increasing efficiency in the production of artificial silk, is the opinion of Mr. Gentaro Shimura, former president of the Japan Hypothec Bank, who was elected president of th Japan silk reeling society at its general meeting yesterday.

"The important incidents that took place during the past year affecting the silk reeling industry include relief measures following the earthquake and fire last year, enactment of the Japanese Exclusion Law, German reparations problem, development of artificial silk, or Rayon, fall of the Yen-Dollar exchange rate, and the war situation in China," said Mr. Shimura in the course of a speech delivered at the meeting. He continued:

LITTLE REASON FOR PESSIMISM

"The prospects of the Japanese silk reeling industry are not all unattractive. The enactment of the Japanese Exclusion Law in America in July this year has so far brought, fortunately, no bad effects to Japan's silk trade with America. There is nothing really calling for pessimism at present in Japan's silk reeling industry, because there is much possibility for business rehabilitation in America and Europe. The supply and demand of silk will continue smoothly.

"Speaking of Rayon, the world's production reaches about 100,000 000 pounds, an increase of three times the amount produced before the Great War. This rapid development of artificial silk threatens the foundation of the raw silk industry. In both quality and production Rayon is now gradually encroaching upon the field of raw silk and, in reality, it is yielding much more satisfactory results than raw silk. It is, therefore difficult for the Japanese silk industry to maintain a predominant position against artificial silk. The foundation of silk reeling industry must be made solid to oust the artificial silk.

EXCHANGE RATE IMPORTANT

"Also it is important to bring about satisfactory fund accommodation for cocoon raisers. Japan had been little affected by the activity of Rayon so far but, if silk prices go higher and the Yen-Dollar exchange is brought to a normal level, the country's silk trade may be hit by Rayon," concluded Mr. Shimura.

Viscount Tadaatsu Makino, president of the society, had resigned the position and Mr. Shimura was elected new president yesterday.

The Silk Reeling Society which had hitherto been attached to the Japan Silk Association as a subsidiary organisation has become independent, in view of the growing importance of Japan's silk reeling industry in recent years. Necessary bills regarding the legal protection of the industry will be drafted and submitted to the next session of the Imperial Diet for approval. Mr. Shimura is a friend of Premier Kato and is in sympathy with the Kenseikai and his appointment as head of the society will, it is said, give it more direct contact with the Government in the effort to obtain aid.

Chinese Stowaways Trapped At New York

(Reuter's American Service)

New York, Oct. 24.—Sixteen Chinese stowaways were discovered in the steamship President Monroe last night, it was learned today when they were taken to Ellis Island to await deportation proceedings.

The President Monroe reached this port from a round-the-world trip at dusk last night. Ninety-three Chinese comprised most of the ship's crew. They were locked up in a room of the vessel while immigration officers searched the vessel for six hours, finding the sixteen stowaways hiding in linen closets, coal holes and recesses in the ship's hold.

The President Monroe docked in Brooklyn.

Are The Yangtsze Tuchuns Going To Sulk In Their Tents?

MARSHAL Wu Pei-fu, former chief of the Chihli military aggregation and his associates in the Yangtsze Valley, have shown themselves to be exceedingly poor sports since the collapse of the war which they had the questionable honor of starting last September. The situation would not be so ridiculous from the standpoint of the present position of the Yangtsze Tuchuns were it not for the fact that the recent war was deliberately started for the purpose of "unifying" China and making the new constitution respected throughout the land. Marshal Chi Hsieh-yuan of Kiangsu province mobilised his forces and made war upon the "independent" province of Chekiang in the name of unification. "Generals Lu and Ho were rebels," read Marshal Chi's declaration, "and there can be no peace in China as long as these rebels stand in the way of national unification."

From the standpoint of Marshal Wu Pei-fu his arguments for attacking Chang Tso-lin were equally plausible. "There could be no peace in China as long as Chang pursued an independent policy in the Three Eastern Provinces. Therefore Chang had to be eliminated," and so on, every sentence breathing profound patriotism even to the extent of an order to the newspapers in Peking telling them in no uncertain terms to cease referring to the armies of Wu Pei-fu as the "Chihli Armies," and in future instructing the editors to use the term "National" army when referring to Wu and his military establishment.

But the war went against the Chihli military party, and it was defeated. It is not necessary to review the causes, but the fact remains that Marshal Wu was defeated and forced to flee from the scene of battle in the North on a gunboat with but a remnant of his former magnificent establishment. After many days of uncertainty, Marshal Wu finally reached the Yangtsze and his old territory in Central China and after many conferences with the Kiangsu Tuchun and others the world's opinion of China was further complicated with the startling announcement that a new military alliance had been formed in the Yangtsze with a new capital at Wuchang. Statements were given out to the Press that Marshal Wu intended to mobilise 200,000 troops for a fresh attack on the new occupants of the National Capital and Marshal Chi Hsieh-yuan ordered a contingent of Hupeh troops now stationed in the Shanghai arsenal to go north to attack Anhwei, which was wavering as to which side to join.

As stated previously in these columns the new situation created by the announced intentions of the Yangtsze Tuchuns to now step into the "independent" shoes, so lately cast aside by Chang Tso-lin and Lu Yung-hsiang, would be highly humorous, were it not so serious from the standpoint of the future welfare of the Republic. The new government in Peking which is now being created about the figure of Tuan Chi-jui, former Anfu leader, may not be very promising and there may not be much enthusiasm regarding the military backers of that government, but to an outsider there can't be much choice of opinion regarding the abilities of the "outs" or the "ins."

The sensational actions of the Christian General Feng Yu-hsiang are still too fresh in the minds of the Chinese people for them to be able to form a correct estimate of his latest accomplishment but apparently he is to be given a chance to demonstrate his ability to work out a new plan of government for the Republic. At any rate as long as he has some 40,000 well drilled and equipped troops under his command he can do as he pleases about the matter.

So considering the situation from all standpoints and especially from the standpoint of the serious condition of the country generally, there can be little other than disgust at the actions of the Yangtsze militarists in refusing to cooperate with the new government, especially in view of the fact that their old leader Tuan Chi-jui is now at the head of things in the Capital. The attempt of the Yangtsze Governors to ignore Marshal Chang Tso-lin and the Christian General is foolish in the extreme and can have no effect whatever except to lay the foundation for another war. Tuan Chi-jui apparently has a sincere desire to bring about unification and to incorporate all interests in the land into the new government. This means the Yangtsze Provinces as well as Canton and Manchuria and merely because they can't run the whole show as they have been doing for the last half dozen years is poor argument for new independence declarations.

What China needs now is a long period of peace in order that she may given the place she formerly occupied in the family of nations. As the news reports of recent days have indicated foreign nations are becoming quite restive regarding China and undoubtedly conversations are in progress in the various world capitals dealing with the serious state of China. China's militarists may think that they can prolong the state of disorder in China indefinitely and profit thereby, but there is no telling when something may happen which might bring a crisis and action on the part of the Powers which might be most disastrous to the present rulers of China.

A Lecture On Christian Science

BY J. W. DOORLY, C. S. B.
Member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., delivered last Sunday evening at the Masonic Hall.

What is the salvation which Christian Science offers? Christian Science is saving men from sin of every kind, from disease, from hate, from poverty, from death, and indeed from every ill to which "flesh is heir."

Are you in bondage to sin, to hate, to sorrow, to disease, to disaster of any kind? Christian Science says that it is possible for you to be rid of these things at once. Are you overwhelmed by some so-called incurable disease that is destroying your happiness or the happiness of some member of your family? Christian Science declares that God never made that disease and that you do not therefore have to submit to it any longer. Are you laboring under deep sorrow? Christian Science says that there is infinite comfort for you in the understanding of Love's ever-presence and that this understanding will entirely obliterate from your thought that sense of sorrow.

In fact Christian Science insists that every condition that is unlike God and that claims to bind man through sin, disease, or death, is wholly abnormal and can and should be destroyed through the correct understanding of God and of God's law.

How then is this salvation to be attained and is it the salvation which the scriptures teach? Christian Science states emphatically that such salvation can only be attained by understanding what God is, what true existence is, the falsity of mortal existence and its inability to satisfy man's highest longings. This understanding must then be used practically in daily life.

Christian Science declares one infinite cause or divine Principle whom we call God or good, who is ever-present divine Mind, and is also infinite Life, Truth and Love.

Now how many differing effects can be obtained from one infinite cause or divine Principle, who is forever the same. Christian Science declares unswervingly that from such a cause there can be but one effect which is infinitely like that cause. Therefore true existence must be forever mental or spiritual, since it is the effect of infinite Mind or Spirit; it must be infinitely good because it is the effect of infinite good and it must always express Life, Truth and Love because it is the expression of Life, Truth and Love.

So also Christian Science, reasoning from the basis of a perfect God, or Mind, and a perfect creation, or existence, wholly good and wholly mental, or spiritual, declares that mortal existence is only the false sense that there is an opposite to infinite Spirit or Mind. This false sense is what the Scriptures describe as the carnal mind and what Jesus described as "a liar, and the father of it." This liar, or lying sense, the carnal mind, declares that finite matter, the opposite of infinite Spirit, has life, substance, and intelligence, when the fact is that infinite Spirit is the only Life, substance or intelligence. When, however, it is seen that the whole of material existence, or the flesh, is only a false belief in a suppositional creator, the carnal mind or evil, and a supposed creation, called mortality, or is in fact a lie, then we begin to comprehend clearly how the truth, about God and His creation, being ever-present and therefore omnipotent and operating with infinite intelligence, can can destroy such a lie, or false mental condition, as mortality.

Christ Jesus demonstrated for all time that spiritual understanding is sufficient for man's health, for his food, for his life, and to overcome all that claims to operate against his harmony as the son of God. He revealed to his followers an infallible rule, which he called "the Truth" that would deliver them from all evil thinking, or from the carnal mind, and its effect, mortality.

He walked on the waters, thus disproving the so-called law of gravity; he healed the sick, thus shattering the idolatrous human belief that disease is a reality or any part of God's creation.

He regarded matter or material existence, simply as a mistaken human belief to be overcome at times and under all circumstances by the understanding of God's law, or of spirtual existence.

In fact Christ Jesus proved completely to mankind the infinite ability of good thinking, or of spiritual understanding to overcome every material, or mortal mind, condition. Mankind, however, dwelling, in a great measure, in the mesmerism of material sense, refused to accept these teachings because they exposed the nothingness of mortal existence, which to them seemed to be the only reality.

Mrs. Eddy during her whole life had shown marked spiritual proclivities and had been searching for years to understand God and His immutable law. When the truth about God and about existence appeared to her she was instantaneously raised from what seemed likely to be her death bed. This incident, however, did not satisfy Mrs. Eddy, for she wanted to know how she was healed, as she writes in her book, Science and Health, page 109, "I knew the Principle of all harmonious Mind-actions to be God, and that cures were produced in primitive Christian healing by holy, uplifting faith; but I must know the Science of this healing, and I won my way to absolute conclusions through divine revelation, reason, and demonstration." Since then Mrs. Eddy's discovery, which she named Christian Science, has been demonstrated in some measure by millions of people. It has delivered these people from sin, from disease and in some cases from death, and has thus proved that the understanding of God's law, that is, of spiritual existence, is as potent today as it was in the time of Abraham or of Christ Jesus.

By those listening for such a message the call again is heard "The spirit and the bride say, Come. And whosoever will let him take the water of life freely" (Rev. 22.17). As we accept this eternal call which Christian Science is today repeating, we too will be enabled to say with Mrs. Eddy,

"And o'er earth's troubled, angry sea
I see Christ walk,
And come to me and tenderly,
Divinely talk."

"From tired joy and grief afar,
And nearer Thee,
Father, where Thine own children are,
I love to be."

Other Views Than Ours On The War In China

THE WAR IN CHINA
(Detroit, Mich., News)

It is probably quite clear to the American people that the civil war in China is not shared in any sense by the Chinese people. The involvement of the Chinese people is limited to destruction of their crops by flooding, destruction of other property, and misappropriation of their moneys for army purposes. But they themselves are not in the war, have no stake in it and have no particular cause for rejoicing or weeping whichever side wins.

It is a very long day since the Chinese people had anything to do with their so-called national affairs; and it is going to be a very long day before they ever do control them. China is ruled by military leaders who dispute each other's authority. The present battle is nominally a struggle for the control of the rich territory adjacent to Shanghai. The battle line between Chang, of Manchuria and Wu, the Peking commander-in-chief, is to settle the issue whether Chang or Wu shall rule China, and it has no reference whatever to the voice or wish of the Chinese people.

Wu believes in unification by force and then rule by an army-supported government. Chang believes in much the same thing but is suspected of design to reseat the Manchus in the person of the boy emperor. Wu would remove first Lu, whose grip on Shanghai started the rumpus, then Sun, and finally Chang. Chang has precisely the same problem, only that he would remove Lu's enemy, Chi, and then Wu, and finally Sun. If there is any difference between the two chief rivals it is that Chang is a friend of Japan and his protegee, Lu, is the leader of the Anfus, the pro-Japanese party, while Wu is strictly pro-Chinese along his own lines.

The struggle is important because obviously the future of the Chinese people is involved. It is important to this country because many businesses here depend on regular shipments from Shanghai, which are now held up. But the Chinese people are in no way to blame for it. They are ruled by the militarists who maintain themselves with mercenaries paid chiefly from public revenue diverted from their rightful purposes.

PITY THE POOR PROFESSOR!
Editor, THE CHINA PRESS:

Sir:—In your yesterday's paper under the column of the "East Window," your informant says: "In one well-known school near Shanghai, one of the foreign faculty members, a graduate of a leading educational institution in the United States and an expert in his line, recently tendered his resignation, the reason being that the students had refused to submit to the discipline necessary for the conduct of college work."

But, as a matter of fact, my real information from one of my relatives, a student in that school, is that this professor offered many courses which he didn't have deep study before, and conducted his class work carelessly without enough preparation.

As a result, one day in his French class, he explained the difficulty of the pronounciation of French by saying, "I once met a Frenchman and tried to make him understand but failed."

Again, when some students of the class of Sociology or Philosophy asked him some questions in the text book or with close connection, he usually answered, "I don't know" or "I am not sure about it," etc. and yet he seems very proud of his honesty of confessing or telling the truth.

Besides, altho he was the physical director of that school, the students could hardly see him playing and directing the games with them on the field. This naturally causes the suspicion of students to assume that he is even ignorant of the rules of different kinds of games—not to speak his skill in playing games.

THE CANTONESE CEMETERY
Editor, THE CHINA PRESS:

Sir:—One of the most interesting but alarming attempts, as a result of the round-table conference held at the Cantonese Guild, on the part of the committee of the "progressive-type," will be the recent announcement concerning the disposing of the existing cemetery to a certain party, it is said, for the construction of a large factory. It is worthy of note that this piece of land can now be disposed of at a much higher rate than it was formerly paid for, and being the property of the Cantonese Guild, it was purchased under the auspices of the members of the "conservative committee" regime.

Be that as it may, the unworthy but selfish motive thus actuated at the instance of a group of people does not in any way meet with the approval of the Cantonese community here. Imagine the large sum of money spent by the community themselves for the erection of thousands of graves, especially those stately structures in semi-foreign style.

And questions in this respect are, however, raised: Who should be held responsible for the large amount of expenses spent by the public on those old and new graves which will have to be removed to the new cemetery? Will the committee in question be the sponsor for such a new attempt as is advocated by them to be a cause mainly in the interest and for the welfare of the public, rich or poor? Let it be realised that where there's a will there must be a way.

The fact that contributions are now being started for the erection of a new cemetery, on the outskirt of Kiangwan, is highly commendable; but the graves occupying the existing cemetery should remain intact, and without bona fide authority from the living descendants and the various District Organisations, they cannot and must not be removed under any pretext whatsoever.

Assuming that they are acting under instructions from the Chapei authorities to carry out their program, it would be rather skeptical how the Wushi Guild and the Szechuenese Guild, etc., have received no sign of similar instructions from the Chapei authorities? Are their cemeteries not located at a place pretty near the business center? If it is not, an explanation in this connection would surely be desirable. That the existing Cantonese Cemetery is situated near the business center is absolutely nonsense.

The Cantonese Cemetery, as its name signifies, is constructed solely for the benefit and welfare of the Cantonese community at large. The rich as well as the poor should positively be treated on the same level. The only argument, however, lies in the fact that the rich family, according to their own discretion, may erect their graves by means of gold bricks if they choose; but the question pending solution would be that all new tombs to be erected in future should be of uniform height.

Certainly the 300 areas of land intended for the new cemetery should be equally enjoyed by the rich as well as the poor. And it seems unjust that 100 acres (specially picked out) of the new site are to be set aside for the erection of "model graves," and that any one who contributes twenty-five taels during the campaign is entitled to OWN a plot of ground sufficient for the erection of a "model grave," presumably after the European style.

However, the other 200 acres are for "Public Mortuary" (for the ordinary class of people) and cannot be owned by any party or parties in all conscience. To own land in the Cantonese Cemetery is naturally a newly-invented system—a system unprecedented in the history of the Cantonese Guild. Dissimilar as these circumstances are, one cannot help offering suggestions and criticisms so far as modifications are concerned. Contribution in this way does not call forth philanthrophy, and philanthrophy is, of course, another question. Men like Mr. Kan Yok-kai (of the Nanyang Bros. Tobacco Co., Ltd.), Mr. S. Y. Tong and a host of others will, without doubt, be in a position to raise funds individually sufficient for the new site if they are sympathisingly enthusiastic over the proposition in carrying out their scheme towards the moral trend of philanthrophy. Let it be understood that disinterestedness is the soul of benevolence. Beneficium invito non datur.

Appreciating your courtesy in publishing this in your valuable columns, I am,

Very truly yours,
PUBLIC WELFARE.

Hall's Distemper has led the way to a new era in house decoration—the era of brighter, cleaner and healthier homes.

It is the most durable of all decorations, lasting for years with freshness unimpaired, whereas wall-papers deteriorate from the first day by fading and accumulating dust and dirt.

Hall's Distemper is a thorough disinfectant, and is applied directly upon the wall, forming a hard surface, from which dust and dirt may be "spring-cleaned" by lightly sponging with warm water.

Correspondence

The poles, trees, fences and almost everything on the streets—occasionally things in the house—will be decorated with this honorably gummy discharge of the nose as cold increases. And you cannot be careless while out in the streets, especially in a windy day, if you do not like to be baptised with this holy water—nay dirty cream.

We Shanghailanders are accustomed from our childhood to wipe off this mucus with handkerchief or something of such kind., But here they do it conveniently with their fingers, and our fashion is simply laughed off.

I am not now going to say about which is the graceful and good form from the point of view of courtesy to do away with this nuisance with handkerchief and do the same with fingers, save that manners will out with one's national character. They are so selfish; they care nothing for other's embarrassment but push on their own wheel ever so blindly. And if we happen to stand in their way, even out of our own right, they would lose no time to show their teeth and come out with every sort of oaths, and say: "Git out! Dis is our land, and we are yer host. Yer guest should go button yer mouth, or yer will be sorry fer dat,"—only to suffice it to hear them not to term us "hangers-on." However, when dust comes our way, we will shut our eyes. Must we relish the dead fly we found in our dish with bitter face out of our respect to our "host"? He who cannot say "no" for things that are against his will must be a coward, and so he is also who tries to wipe off softly the spray of salina he received while conversing anxiously not to provoke the other's feeling. It is as plain as day that we cannot put a spoke into other man's wheel; yet when our own right demands us to move, it is by no means interference but our double right to protect and prosecute our God-given right.

At any rate, they are like a spoiled child; and this spoiled child knows nothing but to hang on his amah, when his selfishness is well satisfied. But once amah chanced to rub his fur wrong way, there will be sharp flap! flap! on her cheek until she, however much good-natured, comes to have the mumps and cry out "yer nota beby!" And amah is right; she knows herself. Well, let us hope, anyhow. This young cross-patch of the sons of Han will soon grow enough to be able to move by his own propellery, and, then, everything will be all right.

Brains, Like Muscles, Must be Used to be Developed

So you are one of those "too lazy to think" individuals. Others form your opinions, not you.

Instead of giving time for study and the consideration of certain subjects, which every man and every woman should think out personally, you draw from something you have read or something you have heard instead of weighing the matter.

The longer you go about without doing constructive thinking, the less reliable your opinion.

You brain is like your muscles, it must be used in order to grow.

Did you ever try to think out a new idea?

If not, try it out soon, for it will prove interesting.

Cook a new dish, make a new style hat, work out a brand new idea in machinery, perfect a new plan for greater speed with accuracy or another style of radio set, which would be more effective and less expensive.

By centering your thoughts on things interesting you are likely to evolve ideas beneficial to yourself and to others.

The more you try to be original, the more likely you are to succeed.

Lanvin's New Ballooning Sleeve Is Most Talked-about Novelty of Autumn Fashions

There were people who talked glibly of "Lanvin green" who couldn't have told you whether the word was French for the linden tree or the name of a new kind of salad. But they knew Lanvin green when they saw it. It was just as distinct as Nile, or jade or Irish or sage. So Lanvin, gifted designer of women's clothes, was likely to go down to fame as the originator of a sort of green just as Georgette will be known for the crepe fabric she originated longer than as a clever modiste.

But now Lanvin's green seems to be only secondary to Lanvin's sleeve. It is by all means the most talked about sleeve we have had for years and one of the few really distinctive things about the season's new mode. Through changes and chances we recognise the bishop sleeve, the mandarin sleeve, the leg o' mutton sleeve, etc., etc. And now we add to the list the Lanvin sleeve.

It's a ballooning sleeve, as the sketch indicates, and it reaches its largest circumference about midway between wrist and elbow. You may call it balloon shaped or melon shaped, if you like, though there never was a balloon nor a melon of just that contour. Somehow the same outline seems to be achieved in this new sleeve no matter what the medium used—whether of chiffon or velvet, georgette or cloth.

An important thing about large sleevees is that they are often made to carry some sort of decoration. A frock of dark green velvet has sleeves of white crepe with shirred bands of the green velvet forming most decorative bands around the lower part of the sleeves. Petal-shaped inserts stitched with metal threads are used on other of these sleeves. A black velvet coat has round petal-shaped inserts of royal blue velvet.

Meantime a variety of sleeves appear in frocks from other designers. There is the sleeve that fits fairly closely to the elbow, and is there finished by a gradually flaring cuff—often in contrasting and figured fabric. Then there are sleeves fitting closely as a coat of mail from shoulder to well below the wrist. Doucet finished frocks with fur cuffs like two straight muffs extending from elbow to wrist.

Lanvin coat sleeve of black velvet trimmed with fur, and blue chiffon sleeve in velvet frock.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

"DINNER IS SERVED"

Many folks nowadays live in such small quarters that anything like a dinner bell or a maid sent to the drawing-room to say, "Dinner is served," would be quite superfluous. By the time dinner has been put on the table the fact can no longer be kept a secret in the two-room-and-kitchenette apartment where there is but one table. The little six-room cottage, too, seldom has any doors between living-room and dining-room and preparations for dinner cannot be kept secret. So the dinner bell against which authorities on good manners used to rail seems to have grown more and more of a rarity. Even the boarding houses seem to be getting rid of them, and the custom is simply to "open the dining-room" doors at a given hour for the various meals of the day. Boarders are expected to keep watch of their clocks and watches.

WE KNOW SOMETHING!

The mother with ordinary good sense before the days when germs were thought, of, knew that utter cleanliness was conducive to the health of her babies. She had never heard of the term sterilisation, but she knew that boiling clothes in the laundry was a good thing to do. She knew that sunning and airing the children's rooms and bedding was wholesome. She knew that clean drinking cups and individual wash cloths were desirable.

And so good sense dictates plenty of fresh milk and fruit for children. The sensible mother without a knowledge of vitamines knows that good butter is important to the little child's diet. Just as she knows that fresh salads are a desirable thing to serve at dinner for the older members of the family.

A TIMELY RECIPE

Broiled Oysters

Take the largest oysters, clean, scald, drain, dry on a towel and dip one by one into softened butter till well coated and then in seasoned flour. Lay them on a buttered broiler. Cook over clear coals until a light brown. Serve on slices of buttered thin toast. If done by a gas stove lay the toast under the broiler to catch the drip. Fine cracker crumbs may be used instead of flour. Oysters that have been breaded for frying are good broiled.

AUTHORS AND ARTISTS TO TOUR WORLD.

MRS. M. T. G. HALE & "BLUE MOON" YACHT

One of the most interesting world cruises ever recorded will start soon from Boston, where the schooner yacht Blue Moon, built for Marie Tudor Garland Hale, sails. Mrs. Hale will have as her guests eight of the most noteworthy American artists and authors. No definite itinerary will be laid out. Mrs. Hale is the mother of Charles Garland, eccentric Bostonian who achieved notoriety when he refused to accept his share of the Garland millions and opened a "love nest" on a desolate Massachusetts farm. She recently completed a volume of verse.

Free Shipping Is Dollar Plan For U. S. Fleet

New York, Oct. 28.—Removal of all legislative restrictions on American shipping, so that ship owners in this country can compete with foreign lines on at least an equal basis, and centralisation of all governmental shipping activities in a new department of marine are the out standing features of suggestions submitted to the American Steamship Owners' Association by the Dollar committee, composed of Pacific Coast officials.

These recommendations, together with other plans advanced by the National Merchant Marine Association, the shipbuilders and various individuals, such as President Cary W. Cook of the American Hawaiian Line, will be taken up for consideration shortly by the ship owners' association. An effort will be made to determine a marine legislative program upon which the industry can unite in submitting its views to Congress this winter.

Opinions expressed by the committee, headed by Captain Robert Dollar, differ from the Cook plan, chiefly in that the latter insists upon liquidation of the government fleet. The Dollar committee makes no reference to the Fleet Corporation, except to recommend that all shipping functions shall be consolidated under a secretary of marine.

WOULD REMOVE DUTIES

The ship owners' association now has before it suggestions representing the points of view of two Pacific Coast groups. The Cook plan was defeated by a majority vote in the Pacific Steamship Owners' Association last summer, with the result that Mr. Cook forwarded his own plan, while a special committee, with Captain Dollar as chairman, was appointed to set forth the opinions of the majority.

In urging removal of legislative restrictions, the Dollar committee would wipe out the 50 percent duty on repair made abroad on American ships, would remove limitations on employment and maintenance of crews, would allow foreign-built ships to be admitted to United States registry, and would revise the navigation laws to conform with those applied by the foremost maritime nations.

RETAIN COASTWISE LAWS

The Dollar committee puts forth no request for national assistance, except that it assumes the protective coastwise laws shall be maintained as at present. The recommendations refer only to the overseas trade. It is the belief of the committee that with handicaps eliminated the American merchant marine will make headway.

While this plan will be considered by the ship owners' association, and will find strong support from a number of members, it is doubtful if it will be approved without change. It is also certain that other branches of the industry will not give it their indorsement. The shipbuilders, for instance, have consistently taken an attitude in favor of a strong protective policy, and they are not likely to surrender the advantages which they have obtained from Congress. There is little likelihood that the marine officers and unlicensed personnel will give up the benefits they have gained through the seamen's act and other legislation.

Mails For U. S. Tomorrow By McKinley

The Admiral Oriental line steamer President McKenley will arrive in Shanghai from Hongkong at 1.30 o'clock this afternoon, berthing at the C. M. Central Wharf. She is to leave for Seattle via Kobe, Yokohama and Victoria, B. C., at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, the last mails will probably closing at 7 o'clock tomorrow morning.

Following the arrival of the Empress of Australia Sunday night, the next mail from the States will probably arrive on the Taiyo Maru next Saturday, and the President Jefferson, usually bringing a heavy mail for this port, is due here from Seattle on December 3.

With the European mail of October 23, the M.M. liner Angers sailed from Saigon at 10 o'clock Friday morning and is expected to arrive in Shanghai via Hongkong next Friday. The P. and O. steamer Khiva, which was to sailed from Singapore yesterday, is due here on December 3, and the Soudan, from Bombay, is expected to arrive in Shanghai the same day.

MAIL FOR EUROPE

The mails for Europe (viz Suez) is to go on the Karmala today. The Karmala will be dispatched from the lower buoy for Marseilles, London and Antwerp at 1:30 p.m. today, and the tender with passengers and hand baggage for the ship is scheduled to leave the Customs jetty at 12:30 o'clock. Mail closed today at 10:30 a.m. for ordinary and at 8:30 a.m. for registered.

U. S. LINES WOULD SAVE TARIFF BUREAU

Admiral Oriental Enters Conference In Spirit Of Conciliation

Tokio, Nov. 18.—"The Admiral Orient Line has no desire to withdraw from the Trans-Pacific Freight Tariff Bureau and we believe that if bankers, shippers and steamship companies come together with an open mind that the present bill-of-lading controversy can be settled satisfactorily to all."

This was the statement of Mr. E. F. Townsend, Oriental Traffic Manager for the Admiral Oriental and Dollar Lines, on his arrival in Kobe Sunday morning on the Admiral Line steamer President Madison.

Mr. A. Cameron, Oriental Manager for the Canadian Pacific, and Mr. Victor M. Smith, assistant director for the Orient for the United States Shipping Board, who arrived on the same steamer, would not make any statement until they had conferred with their representatives in Kobe. All three officials, who have come to Japan in the interests of settling the present bill of lading tangle, left for Yokohama on the steamer at noon Monday.

WOULD CHANGE BANKS' PRACTISE

The solution which Mr. Townsend has to offer for the present difficulty is the suggestion that the banks go back to their former system of recognizing the principle of received-for-shipment bills of lading instead of requiring shipped-on-board bills of lading before honoring shippers documents, as is the present practice. This system was practiced in Japan ports by the banks four years ago but has since been superseded.

"The system of honoring received-for-shipment bills of lading worked very satisfactorily in Japan ports when it was in effect before," Mr. Townsend said, "and I believe it is more sound business practice than the present system of issuing shipped-on-board bills of lading before goods are actually on board steamers."

MAY SPLIT CONFERENCE

(The practice of issuing shipped-on-board bills of lading in Japan as soon as the steamer is in port and before the goods are on board is being followed at present by all the Trans-Pacific Freight Tariff Bureau members except the four Shipping Board Lines, which discontinued the system two months ago. This is the rock which has threatened to split the Conference and which ship operators hope to settle satisfactorily during the next few days.)

Mr. Townsend said the New York Silk importers had agreed to the principle of received-for-shipment bills of lading and that since they were the parties who opened the letters of credit for silk shipments, he could not see why the banks would object to handle shipping documents on that basis.

FRAUGHT WITH DANGER

He said that the insistence of the banks on shipped-on-board bills of lading came into effect because some years ago letters of credit were being opened which specified only "bills of lading" and this was construed by the banks as meaning shipped-on-board bills of lading.

"We feel that the present system of issuing shipped-on-board bills of lading before goods are actually on board the steamer is fraught with danger for the banker, the shipper and the steamship company," Mr. Townsend said," and is illegal according to American law. We are only asking that the shipping business be transacted in a business-like manner."

"Australia's" Rough Experiences Last Eastward Trip

The C.P.O.S. s.s. Empress of Australia, which arrived from Vancouver Sunday forenoon and proceeded to Hongkong yesterday bringing news of the rough experiences she had on the last trip across from here. As a result of being buffeted by fierce northeast gales, her prow plunging into heavy southeast and easterly swells, with waves running "mountain high," she arrived at her destination in Vancouver nearly twenty-four hours behind her schedule, but not damaged by the fiercest storm that has raged off the Pacific Coast in the month of October since 1890.

The vessel just barely missed a typhoon, which was coming in its direction just after leaving Hongkong. Running into rough weather on the way up to Kobe the ship was delayed twelve hours. The Australia making up the time, however, on the transpacific run when she ran into another storm a week out from Vancouver.

Lily Bulbs And Firecrackers For American Trade

On their last trips to Seattle Oriental liners President Grant, President Madison and President McKinley took large shipments of firecrackers from Hongkong designed for the coming Chinese New Year celebrations.

Approximately 1,000 tons of fireworks, practically all of the firecracker variety, were booked for the vessels of this line. According to statisticians of the Admiral-Oriental line, this quantity totals over 800,000,000 firecrackers, or 160,000,000 strings or packages. If these were stretched end to end they would reach a distance of 3,741 miles and almost as great a distance as from Yokohama to Victoria.

These three ships of the Admiral-Oriental line also took over 500 tons of lily bulbs from Japan. These bulbs are for distribution during the Chinese holiday period and later for Easter trade.

Tokio, Nov. 18.—Consideration as to whether directors should be immediately concerned with the business of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha was discussed at the director's meeting of the company at the Mitsubishi Building Saturday. The meeting was attended by Viscount Shibusawa, Barons Go and Iwasaki, advisers of the company, President Shirani, and four new directors, Messrs. Kimura, Dokata, Kagmu, and Ohoshi.

Since the new directors are not devoting their full time to the business affairs of the company, as they belong to other leading business firms in the city, it was agreed at the meeting that additional directors who can devote their full time to the business of the company are to be appointed and that the directors directly concerned with business matters of the company are to be named by the next general meeting of the shareholders of the company, which is scheduled to take place November 28.

PERSONNEL DISCUSSED

A further discussion went on as to how many members of the active directors' board in question should be appointed and who should be named for the posts. Vice-President Kurokawa, Messrs. Otani and Takeda, managing director and ordinary business director, respectively, were considered at meeting for the post. The consideration of this personnel, however, was not agreed upon by the persons attending the meetings. Some of these at the meeting proposed the names of three persons Mr. Matsudaira, Councillor, Mr. Komatsubara, head of the Shipping Department, and Mr. Yasuda, head of the Business Department.

Another meeting of the directors is to take place early this week to name two of the directors who will attend directly to business affairs of the company.

Commenting on the matter of appointing new directors, Baron Seinosuke Go, one of the advisers to the company, said yesterday:

"There is a group of persons who would appoint the new directors from among the present members of the company. My personal preference on the matter is to make the choice for the post from the present members of the directorship or some experts on shipping affairs."
